HANU Overview

HelpAge Advocacy Network Uganda (HANU) is the country's age care network that targets to provide high-quality and compassionate care that meets the physical, emotional, and social needs of older persons in Uganda. The network further aims to advocate for age-friendly policies and programs both at national and sub-national levels, to advocate for the rights and well-being of older persons in Uganda to enhance the quality of care and address evolving needs of the aging population through research, innovation, and best practices. It is also a platform and a hub of resources for exchange of best practices and knowledge, innovation and collaboration for the benefit of older persons, to foster joint resource mobilization for members organizations and to strengthen the capacities of age care organization.

HANU advocates for a Ugandan society where every older man and woman, everywhere in the country, can say: 'I have the income I need; I enjoy the best possible health and quality of life, I am safe and secure, free from discrimination and abuse and my voice is heard.'
